Plan Group Ruling May Stir Debate

A ruling by the Albany Planning and Zoning Commission at its meeting this week promises to stir up a controversy and may bring the decision before the Council on appeal.

According to the ruling any citizen who wishes to conduct a business in his home "on a part-time basis, and primarily as a hobby," may do so without even the necessity of obtaining a "home industry permit."

The ruling came up as a result of the application of Eldon A. Wolf for a permit to conduct a part-time radio, electronics and television repair business in his home at 1006 Peralta Avenue. Wolf was referred to the City Treasurer to obtain a business license, but the Commission ruled that it could not issue a variance from the zoning ordinance as no hardship was involved, but also ruled that no permit would be necessary because of the nature of the proposed business.

The Commission also approved plans for an apartment house to be constructed at the northwest corner of Evelyn and Solano Avenues by the contracting firm of J. Vila and Sons.

Request by the Alberito Business and Professional Women's Club asking a proclamation by the Mayor in connection with the club's drive for members, and naming the week of Sept. 25-Oct. 1 as "Business and Professional Women's Week" was approved by the council.

Law Violators Warned of Peril Over Labor Day

SACRAMENTO—Death of injury will be the fate of many traffic law violators this Labor Day week end. This prediction by the California Highway Patrol is based on the traffic experiences recorded over the Memorial Day and Fourth of July week end.

"Although every possible action is taken each holiday period by the traffic law enforcement agencies, the traffic toll continues to be unreasonably high," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "Our enforcement efforts this Labor Day week end will again be keyed to the problem with every available man and piece of equipment on the road."

Professional techniques of traffic control and enforcement will be utilized to stop the accident bound traffic violator before he injures or kills," Caldwell continued. "Appropriate enforcement action will be taken against all violators with particular attention given to fast driving, right-of-way drivers, drinking drivers and slow drivers who persist in staying in the passing lane on multi-lane roadways."

This can be the safest holiday period of the year if drivers will recognize the fact that traffic law violators cause nearly all traffic accidents. Stop the violator and you stop accidents."

Placing of a loading zone adjacent to the new bus stop in front of the Albany Theater, westward toward San Pablo, was recommended by Police Chief Ralph Jensen, and approved by the council.

Concerning Chief Jensen's recommendations regarding parking limit on Kains Ave. between Washington and the north limit of the one-hour zone north of Solano Ave. The chief recommended a two-hour parking limit, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. This was approved.

Albany Eagles To Hold Annual Picnic Sept. 11

Albany's Bayview Aerie 2323, Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold its annual picnic at Eckley Park, one mile east of Crockett on the Port Costa Rd., Sunday, Sept. 11.

Nothing has been left out to ensure all attending a grand and glorious day of fun. There will be games, contests with prizes, dancing and fun for all.

The grounds include a wading swimming pool for the small folk and a large swimming pool for the grownups. A soft ball game between California Aerie of Berkeley and the Albany Eagles will be a feature of the day.

For those who do not plan on taking a picnic lunch, the kitchen committee will have ample food on hand. This will include New York steak, ground beef steak and hamburgers de luxe with all the trimmings, with green salad, potatoes, hot rolls and coffee. Ice cream and soda pop will be served free throughout the day for the kiddies. This promises to be the outstanding picnic ever to be sponsored by Albany Eagles in recent years. The largest crowd in many years is anticipated.

NEW STRUCTURE

Another bridge and renovation structure to take southbound traffic on U.S. 101 over Sir Francis Drake Blvd. and Corte Madera Creek in Marin County will be underway as soon as incoming bids for construction have been accepted, reports the National Automobile Club. The $300,000,000 Redwood Emboise system of highways brings within easy reach of the traveler all of the pleasures of traveling through its nine counties.

The humility of hypocrites is, of all pride, the greatest and most haughty.—Martin Luther.

Denham Named To Head Crusade Window Displays

The appointment of Harold Denham to the Albany Community Crusade Public Relations Committee, as window display chairman, was confirmed today by President William McAuley of the crusade cabinet. In making the announcement, McAuley pointed out that Denham will coordinate Albany's live window displays and other special displays, with the area-wide United Bay Area Crusade Kick-off.

The public relations committee, directed by Mrs. Cheryl Kellinhamer, also has the job of telling Albany citizens how the crusade helps them meet their problems," said McAuley. "The family and children's service, for example, helped 61 Albany families in 1954, with services ranging from counseling and guidance in family problems to emergency financial assistance. Agencies such as these are a defense against tragedy and unhappiness in our community."

McAuley also stated that the cabinet will meet again before the fund drive starts, to help Albany Police Chief Ralph Jensen, community campaign chairman, coordinate final plans and special events. The meeting date will be announced next week when Elmer Coble, the cabinet secretary, returns from vacation.

Other members of the cabinet are: Mrs. Florabelle Blank, residential campaign chairman; Superintendent of Schools Dr. Paul C. Bryan, who is also serving on the boards of the United Bay Area Crusade and the East Bay United Crusade; Sam Flicetti of Sam's Pharmacy; George A. Muller of Muller - Gordon Motor Co.; Dr. J. E. Simpson, representing the Western Utilization Research Branch; Fred Granholt of Granholt Sheet Metal Works; Bert Griffin, director of Community Services for the Albany Schools and chairman of the Public Schools drive; Noyes Collison, Berkeley Area Community Chest, and Arthur Danforth, East Bay United Crusade.

GOOD PLANNING

If you know how to plan your driving so you're always in the proper lane for turning or for moving straight ahead, you have learned an important part of good driving, says the California State Automobile Association. Planning makes driving easier, not only for yourself, but for everyone else as well.

GIVE YOURSELF A BREAK. When you're driving, don't take unnecessary chances. For instance, when you're going to overtake another car, be sure there's enough space ahead so you can pass in safety, says the California State Automobile Association. Give yourself a break.

Safe Driving Tips For Motorists on Vacation Trips

If a vacation is to be a success, certain details must be planned ahead of time. How far to go? What clothes to pack? Where to stop? How much money to take along? And one thing that will help to make your vacation a happy one, advises the California State Automobile Association, is a personal check-up on your safe driving habits.

Traffic accidents, especially in rural areas, invariably increase during the vacation months. This is due to the simple fact that more people are driving greater distances.

1.—Plan to drive only a reasonable distance each day. A safe maximum is about 300 miles, and less in mountainous country. After eight or nine hours behind the wheel, driving efficiency falls off.

2.—Have your car checked carefully before you start a vacation trip. Brakes, tires, lights, steering, windshield wipers and horn are most important.

3.—If you become drowsy, pull off the road and rest. Have a cup of coffee.

4.—If you want to admire the scenery, consult a map, or have a snack, pull off the road and stop. Don't merely slow down, as this action will cause other drivers to take chances to get around you.

5.—Never drink alcoholic beverages on the days you are going to drive.

Always drive at a safe speed. Generally speaking, this will be the speed being maintained by most of the cars on the same road. It is equally dangerous to drive appreciably faster or slower than the general flow of traffic.

7.—When following another car on the same road, allow at least one car length for each ten miles per hour of your speed.

8.—At night and during bad weather decrease your speed and increase your following distance.

Many people stop along the road for picnics during the summer. On unfamiliar roads, be alert for car entering and leaving the highway at unexpected places.

10.—Get away early and leave a little extra time for arriving at each day's destination.

LIFE - SAVERS

Four easy - to - remember rule that will help you to be a better driver are: (1), Maintain proper following distance; (2), Stay in the proper lane; (3), Signal your intentions well ahead of time, and (4), give full time and attention to your driving. Remember these, says the California State Automobile Association, and you'll be a life saver.

Mrs. W. H. Coring has been appointed to the executive board as assistant hospitality chairman.

New mothers of children entering Cornell School will be welcomed and served coffee in the teachers' lunchroom on Monday, Sept. 12 from 8:45 to 10 a.m. and 1 to 2:45 p.m. by Mrs. Henry Henriksen and Mrs. Louise Coggiola, tea hostesses assisted by Mesdames Dan Colatorti, Wm. ASSAULT ON BATTERY

Automobile batteries are called upon to do extra work in the late model cars for such added accessories as air conditioning, electric window lifts and seat adjusters. If your car is equipped with some of these extras it will save you trouble if you have the battery generator charging rate checked regularly, suggests the California State Automobile Association.

CAR SCRATCHES

A small scratch on an automobile should be taken care of without delay or it may rust. If rusting starts, it will eat away the metal under the paint, says the California State Automobile Association. An inexpensive touch-up job now may save you an expensive paint job later on.

DRUNK DRIVERS

Motorists driving while under the influence of alcohol were involved in 177 fatal and 10,631 injury accidents in California during 1954, reports the California State Automobile Association.

How Captain Richardson Started City Across Bay

Looking at San Francisco today with its hilltop hotels, its soaring skyscrapers, and its thousands of little houses crowding over its many hills, it is sometimes difficult to realize that the city was not always there, that a little over a hundred years ago there was nothing but the rolling hills, sand, brush, and wind-swept trees.

Yet this was in truth the case, points out the National Automobile Club, back in 1822 when Captain William A. Richardson, a master mariner who had been born in England, came to the San Francisco area and made arrangements with Governor Sola, the last Spanish governor of California, to teach the young Indians and Spaniards at the San Francisco Presidio the arts of carpentry and navigation, in return for which he was to have the privilege of staying at the Presidio.

Richardson soon found, however, that teaching the young men the arts of carpentry and navigation did not take all his time or energy so, being an enterprising soul, he started in with the job of developing communications and trade across the waters of San Francisco Bay. For years he managed the transports that ran between San Francisco and the embarcadero at Mission San Jose and piloted many

More than 500 old autos are expected to be on hand for the tour. At left above is a Model T Ford, 1915 vintage, owned by D. V. McCauley, a mu-

The other car is a 1916 Chalmers, owned by Duane Horner, also a musician, of 552 - 23d St., Richmond, who will be accompanied on the trip by his wife, Marie Louise, and daughter, Michele, 4. McCauley and Horner are members of the Antique Automobile Club of America. They expect to arrive home about the middle of September. —Courtesy Oakland Tribune.

vessels in and out of the bay, serving as Captain of the Port and Bay of San Francisco under General Vallejo.

While engaged in these activities, Richardson got the idea of establishing a port town on San Francisco Bay and he chose Yerba Buena Cove as being the best possible place for anchoring. A man of direct action, he set about establishing this town in 1835 by erecting a tent in Yerba Buena on a site that is now part of Grant Avenue between Clay and Washington Streets. He soon replaced this first habitation ever erected in Yerba Buena with a small wooden shack, and then, in 1837, replaced the shack with a round adobe house that was to be the "Casa Grande" of the village until 1848. In 1852 the house was torn down and replaced by the Adelphi Theater.

Around this solitary tent, this shack, and then the house, the village of Yerba Buena grew. And in time the village of Yerba Buena became the City of San Francisco, with its hilltop hotels, its soaring skyscrapers, and its little houses crowding across its many hills.

Bon Homme Richard to be Re-commissioned Sept. 6

Climaxing 30 months of extensive modernization and conversion in San Francisco's Naval Shipyard at Hunter's Point, the aircraft carrier USS Bon Homme Richard, will be recommissioned at 3 p.m., Sept. 6, it was announced today by Rear Admiral John R. Redman, commandant of the Twelfth Naval District.

Secretary of Navy Charles S. Thomas, Governor Goodwin J. Knight, Senator William F. Knowland and California civic leaders have accepted invitations to attend the recommissioning ceremonies which will be witnessed by 2000 crew members and some 3000 civilians.

The ship's alterations, costing nearly $67,000,000, included a prefabricated 63-ton streamlined "hurricane" bow, transformation of the flight deck into an angled landing pattern to reduce accidents, and installation of steam catapults for launching jet aircraft.

The huge carrier was constructed at New York Naval Shipyard and launched April 29, 1944. She was originally commissioned Nov. 26, 1944. During World War II she served from Okinawa to the Third Fleet strikes against Japanese homeland. Following the war she was employed in returning thousands of men from forward areas, often referred to as the Navy's "magic carpet."

The Korean conflict found the "Bonnie Dick" launching the first all reserve air groups against the Communists. One of these was from Oakland.

Bon Homme Richard was decommissioned May 15, 1953, to undergo conversion.

New Speed Laws Become Effective On September 7

New laws governing the speed of motor vehicles driven through work areas on highways and the speed of trucks and combinations become effective Sept. 7, reports the California State Automobile Association.

As of that date the speed limit on highways where persons are at work shall be a prima facie limit of 25 miles per hour instead of a fixed limit of 25 miles per hour.

The speed limit for heavy trucks and combinations will be increased from 40 to 45 miles an hour.

To pass a motor vehicle going less than 20 miles an hour on a grade, an overtaking vehicle must go at least 10 miles an hour faster. In addition, it must complete the passing movement within a quarter-mile distance.

The CSAA further reports that local authorities as well as the State Department of Public Works may restrict speed to 25 miles an hour because of snow conditions on highways within their jurisdiction. A new law also extends to local authorities the power to determine the maximum speed limit for any bridge, structure, tube or tunnel that constitutes part of a highway in the area which they control.

Speaker to Talk on Caribbean Islands

Father Starns will discuss various shrines, the principal one being that dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima at Laventille, Port of Spain, Trinidad. He also plans to give a picture of general conditions, both economic and spiritual, of the church in the area.

THE BANK OF CALIFORNIA

Formerly Bank of Berkeley

and a few have been added...

It's not unusual nowadays to speak of banks as financial department stores. Our "store" isn't a square foot larger than it was when it was Bank of Berkeley, but as an office of The Bank of California it offers a broader range of services. Two good examples are our new foreign trade and trust services. Through the Berkeley Office you may finance shipments to or from any point in the world and use all the facilities of one of the country's oldest international banking services. Our Trust Department offers estate planning, investment management and many other services—yours to command. All of our other banking services, including bank-by-mail, continue as usual.

Traffic Accidents

Show Increase

Over Last Year

Four types of traffic violations caused 62 per cent of all traffic accidents says the California Highway Patrol.

"Last year there were 17,777 traffic accidents in California," said Patrol Commissioner Caldwell. "Of these, 10,842 were violations of the rules of the road, right-of-way, improper speed, and drunk driving."

During the first seven months of this year 17,777 persons lost lives in California traffic accidents, Caldwell continued. "The increase of 8.5% compared to the same period in 1954 is indicative of the continued violations of the consequences of traffic rules."

Traffic laws are safety measures designed to protect life and property, he said. "Far too many people develop a habit of cheating traffic laws. This cheating, sooner or later, leads to an accident, frequently, injury or death."
